

April 30th 2017

Grace

Series: Stepping into the Supernatural
Hebrews 11:31; Joshua 2:1-24

Pastor Sam Owusu

We have arrived at the conclusion of our studies of “Stepping into the Supernatural.” Our lesson today is about Rahab, a Gentile prostitute. Yet the grace of God reaches out and touches Rahab in such a profound way that she becomes a hero in her own right, and makes possible the victory Joshua hoped to gain.

I. HER FAITH

- C _____

- C _____

- C _____

- C _____

○ C _____

○ C _____

II. HER FREEDOM

○ P _____

○ P _____

○ P _____

○ P _____

III. HER FAME

STUDY GUIDE

Read 1 Timothy 1:13-15

1. How does Paul describe himself before he knew Christ?
2. Why did God show mercy to Paul?
3. How does Luke 23:34 parallel Paul's words in verse 13b?
4. If Paul was the "chief" of sinners, yet was saved, what is he saying to the rest of us?
5. What do you appreciate most about the "freeness" of grace?